STEP ONE

Determining the offence category

The court should determine the offence category with reference only to the factors listed in the tables below. In order to determine the category the court should assess culpability and harm.

The court should weigh all the factors set out below in determining the offender's culpability.

Where there are characteristics present which fall under different levels of culpability, the court should balance these characteristics to reach a fair assessment of the offender's culpability.

Culpability demonstrated by one or more of the following:

A - High culpability:

- Prolonged and/or multiple incidents of serious cruelty
- Gratuitous degradation of victim and/or sadistic behaviour
- Use of significant force
- Use of a weapon
- Blatant and deliberate disregard to the welfare of the child
- Offender with professional care over the victim (where linked to the commission of the offence)
- Failure to take any steps to protect a child victim from offences with the above factors present

B - Medium culpability:

- Limited steps taken to protect victim in cases with Category A factors present
- Other Cases falling between A and C because:
 - Factors in both high and lesser categories are present which balance each other out and/or
 - The offender's culpability falls between the factors as described in high and lesser culpability

C - Lesser culpability:

- Offender's responsibility substantially reduced by mental disorder or learning disability or lack of maturity
- Victim of domestic abuse, including coercion and/or intimidation (when linked to the commission of the offence)
- Steps taken to protect victim but fell just short of what could reasonably be expected
- Momentary or brief lapse in judgement
- Minimal force or failure to protect a child from an incident involving minimal force

Annex B: Revised draft guideline

Harm

The court should consider the factors set out below to determine the level of harm that has been caused to the victim.

Category 1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Death
Category 2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Physical harm which has a substantial and/or long term effect • Serious psychological harm • Significantly reduced life expectancy • A progressive, permanent or irreversible condition
Category 3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All other harm caused

STEP TWO

Starting point and category range

Having determined the category at step one, the court should use the corresponding starting point to reach a sentence within the category range below. The starting point applies to all offenders irrespective of plea or previous convictions. A case of particular gravity, reflected by multiple features of culpability or harm in step one, could merit upward adjustment from the starting point before further adjustment for aggravating or mitigating features, set out on the next page.

Harm	Culpability
	A	B	C
Category 1	Starting point 9 years' custody Category range 7 – 14 years' custody	Starting point 5 years' custody Category range 3 – 8 years' custody	Starting point 2 years' custody Category range 1 year– 4 years' custody
Category 2	Starting point 7 years' custody Category range 5 – 9 years' custody	Starting point 4 years' custody Category range 2 – 6 years' custody	Starting point 1 year 6 months' custody Category range 6 months – 3 years' custody
Category 3	Starting point 4 years' custody Category range 2 – 6 years' custody	Starting point 1 year 6 months' custody Category range 6 months – 3 years' custody	Starting point 9 months' custody Category range High level community order– 2 years' custody

Annex B: Revised draft guideline

The table below contains a non-exhaustive list of additional factual elements providing the context of the offence and factors relating to the offender. Identify whether any combination of these, or other relevant factors, should result in an upward or downward adjustment from the sentence arrived at so far. In particular, relevant recent convictions are likely to result in an upward adjustment. In some cases, having considered these factors, it may be appropriate to move outside the identified category range.

Factors increasing seriousness

Statutory aggravating factors:

- Previous convictions, having regard to a) the nature of the offence to which the conviction relates and its relevance to the current offence; and b) the time that has elapsed since the conviction
- Offence committed whilst on bail

Other aggravating factors:

- Failure to seek medical help (where not taken into account at step one)
- Prolonged suffering prior to death
- Commission of offence whilst under the influence of alcohol or drugs
- Deliberate concealment and/or covering up of the offence
- Blamed others for the offence
- Victim particularly vulnerable
- Failure to respond to interventions or warnings about behaviour
- Threats to prevent reporting of the offence
- Failure to comply with current court orders
- Offence committed on licence or post sentence supervision
- Offences taken into consideration

Factors reducing seriousness or reflecting personal mitigation

- No previous convictions or no relevant/recent convictions
- Remorse
- Attempts to address or rectify behaviour (either on own behalf or on behalf of somebody else in an attempt to protect the victim) e.g. seeking support from authorities
- Sole or primary carer for dependent relatives (see step five for further guidance on parental responsibilities)
- Good character and/or exemplary conduct (the more serious the offence, the less the weight which should normally be attributed to this factor).
- Serious medical condition requiring urgent, intensive or long-term treatment

Annex B: Revised draft guideline

- Mental disorder or learning disability (where not taken into account at step one)
- Co-operation with the investigation

STEP THREE

Consider any factors which indicate a reduction for assistance to the prosecution

The court should take into account sections 73 and 74 of the Serious Organised Crime and Police Act 2005 (assistance by defendants: reduction or review of sentence) and any other rule of law by virtue of which an offender may receive a discounted sentence in consequence of assistance given (or offered) to the prosecutor or investigator.

STEP FOUR

Reduction for guilty pleas

The court should take account of any potential reduction for a guilty plea in accordance with section 144 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 and the Guilty Plea guideline.

STEP FIVE

Parental responsibilities for sole or primary carers

In the majority of cases the offender will have parental responsibility for the victim. When the case is on the cusp of custody the court should step back and review whether this sentence will be in the best interests of the victim (as well as other children the offender may care for). This must be balanced with the seriousness of the offence and all sentencing options remain open to the court but careful consideration should be given to the effect that a custodial sentence could have on the family life of the victim and whether this is proportionate to the seriousness of the offence. This may be of particular relevance in lesser culpability/harm cases, particularly “failure to protect” offences, where the offender has otherwise been a loving and capable parent/carer.

STEP SIX

Totality principle

If sentencing an offender for more than one offence, or where the offender is already serving a sentence, consider whether the total sentence is just and proportionate to the overall offending behaviour in accordance with the Offences Taken into Consideration and Totality guideline.

STEP SEVEN

Ancillary orders

In all cases the court should consider whether to make ancillary orders.

STEP EIGHT

Reasons

Section 174 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 imposes a duty to give reasons for, and explain the effect of, the sentence.

STEP NINE

Consideration for time spent on bail

The court must consider whether to give credit for time spent on bail in accordance with section 240A of the Criminal Justice Act 2003.
