

Annex D

Non-domestic burglary

Theft Act 1968 (section 9)

Triable either way (except as noted below)

Maximum: 10 years' custody

Offence range: x – xx years' custody

This is a specified offence for the purposes of sections 266 and 279 (extended sentence for certain violent, sexual or terrorism offences) of the Sentencing Code if it was committed with intent to:

- a. inflict grievous bodily harm on a person, or
- b. do unlawful damage to a building or anything in it.

This offence is indictable only where it is a burglary comprising the commission of, or an intention to commit, an offence which is triable only on indictment.

STEP ONE

Determining the offence category

The court should determine the offence category with reference only to the factors in the table below. In order to determine the category the court should assess culpability and harm.

The level of culpability is determined by weighing up all the factors of the case. Where there are characteristics present which fall under different levels of culpability the court should balance these characteristics to reach a fair assessment of the offender's culpability

Culpability demonstrated by one or more of the following:
A- High Culpability	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• A significant degree of planning or organisation</li><li>• Knife or other weapon carried (where not charged separately)</li></ul>
B- Medium culpability	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Some degree of planning or organisation</li><li>• Equipped for burglary where not in high culpability)</li><li>• Other cases that fall between categories A and C because:<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>○ Factors are present in A and C which balance each other out and/or</li><li>○ The offender's culpability falls between the factors described in A and C</li></ul></li></ul>
C- Lower culpability	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Offence committed on impulse, with limited intrusion into property</li><li>• Involved through coercion, intimidation or exploitation</li><li>• Mental disorder or learning disability, where linked to the commission of the offence</li></ul>

Harm

The level of harm is assessed by weighing up all the factors of the case

Category 1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Much greater emotional impact on the victim than would normally be expected</li><li>• Victim on the premises (or returns) while offender present</li><li>• Violence used or threatened against the victim</li><li>• Theft of/damage to property causing a- substantial degree of loss to the victim (whether economic, commercial or personal value) Soiling of property and/or extensive damage or disturbance to property</li><li>• Context of public disorder</li></ul>
Category 2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Greater emotional impact on the victim than would normally be expected</li></ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Theft of/damage to property causing some degree of loss to the victim (whether economic, commercial or personal value)</li> <li>• Ransacking or vandalism of the property</li> </ul>
Category 3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Nothing stolen or only property of low value to the victim (whether economic, commercial or personal)</li> <li>• Limited damage or disturbance to property</li> </ul>

STEP TWO

Starting point and category range

Having determined the category at step one, the court should use the corresponding starting point to reach a sentence within the category range below. The starting point applies to all offenders irrespective of plea or previous conditions

Courts may wish to note the Imposition guideline

Below is a non-exhaustive list of additional elements providing the context of the offence and factors relating to the offender. Identify whether a combination of these or other relevant factors should result in any upward or downward adjustment from the sentence arrived at so far.

Factors increasing seriousness

Statutory aggravating factors:

- Previous convictions, having regard to a) the nature of the offence to which the conviction relates and its relevance to the current offence; and b) the time that has elapsed since the conviction
- Offence committed whilst on bail
- Offence motivated by, or demonstrating hostility based on any of the following characteristics or presumed characteristics of the victim: religion, race, disability, sexual orientation or transgender identity

Other aggravating factors:

- Abuse of a position of trust
- Restraint, detention or additional gratuitous degradation of the victim
- Vulnerable victim
- Offence was committed as part of a group
- Offences taken into consideration
- Any steps taken to prevent the victim reporting the incident or obtaining assistance and/or from assisting or supporting the prosecution
- Offence committed on licence or post sentence supervision or while subject to court order(s)
- Commission of offence whilst under the influence of alcohol or drugs
- Established evidence of community impact

Factors reducing seriousness or reflecting personal mitigation

- Offender has made voluntary reparation to the victim
- The offender was in a lesser or subordinate role if acting with others/performed limited role under direction
- No previous convictions or no relevant/recent convictions
- Remorse
- Good character and/or exemplary conduct
- Determination, and/or demonstration of steps taken to address addiction or offending behaviour
- Physical disability or serious medical conditions requiring urgent, intensive or long-term treatment
- Mental disorder or learning disability, where not linked to the commission of the offence
- Age and/or lack of maturity
- Delay since apprehension
- Sole or primary carer for dependent relatives

STEP THREE*Consider any factors which indicate a reduction for assistance to the prosecution

The court should take into account section 74 of the Sentencing Code (reduction in sentence for assistance to prosecution) and any other rule of law by virtue of which an offender may receive a discounted sentence in consequence of assistance given (or offered) to the prosecutor or investigator.

STEP FOUR*Reduction for guilty pleas

The court should take account of any potential reduction for a guilty plea in accordance with section 73 of the Sentencing Code and the Reduction in Sentence for a Guilty Plea guideline.

STEP FIVE*Dangerousness

A burglary offence under section 9 Theft Act 1968 is a specified offence if it was committed with the intent to (a) inflict grievous bodily harm on a person, or (b) do unlawful damage to a building or anything in it. The court should consider whether having regard to the criteria contained section 308 of the Sentencing Code it would be appropriate to impose an extended sentence (sections 266 and 279).

STEP SIX*Totality principle

If sentencing an offender for more than one offence, or where the offender is already serving a sentence, consider whether the total sentence is just and proportionate to the overall offending behaviour in accordance with the Totality guideline.

STEP SEVEN*Compensation and ancillary orders

In all cases the court should consider whether to make compensation and/or other ancillary orders.

STEP EIGHT*Reasons

Section 52 of the Sentencing Code imposes a duty to give reasons for, and explain the effect of, the sentence.

STEP NINE*Consideration for time spent on bail (tagged curfew)

The court must consider whether to give credit for time spent on bail in accordance with section 240A of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 and section 325 of the Sentencing Code.
