STEP ONE

Determining the offence category

The court should determine the offence category with reference only to the factors in the table below. In order to determine the category the court should assess culpability and harm.

The level of culpability is determined by weighing up all the factors of the case. Where there are characteristics present which fall under different levels of culpability the court should balance these characteristics to reach a fair assessment of the offender's culpability.

CULPABILITY
Demonstrated by one or more of the following:
A- High Culpability	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Conduct over a sustained period of time• Sophisticated and planned nature of conduct• Underlying offence very serious
B- Medium culpability	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Other cases that fall between categories A and C because:<ul style="list-style-type: none">○ Factors are present in A and C which balance each other out and/or○ The offender's culpability falls between the factors described in A and C
C- Lower culpability	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Unplanned and limited in scope and duration• Unsophisticated nature of conduct• Underlying offence was not serious• Involved through coercion, intimidation or exploitation• Offender's responsibility substantially reduced by mental disorder or learning disability

HARM
The level of harm is assessed by weighing up all the factors in the case.
Category 1	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Serious consequences for an innocent person(s) as a result of the offence (for example time spent in custody/arrest)• Serious distress caused to innocent party (for example loss of reputation)• Serious impact on administration of justice•• Conduct succeeded in perverting the course of justice• Substantial delay caused to the course of justice

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Some delay caused to the course of justice
Category 3	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Conduct did not succeed in perverting the course of justice• Limited effects of the offence

STEP TWO

Starting point and category range

Having determined the category at step one, the court should use the corresponding starting point to reach a sentence within the category range below. The starting point applies to all offenders irrespective of plea or previous convictions

	A	B	C
Category 1	Starting Point 4 years' custody Category Range 2 - 6 years' custody	Starting Point 2 years' custody Category Range 1 -4 years' custody	Starting Point 1 years' custody Category Range 9 months - 2 years' custody

STEP FOUR

Reduction for guilty pleas

The court should take account of any potential reduction for a guilty plea in accordance with section 73 of the Sentencing Code and the Reduction in Sentence for a Guilty Plea guideline.

If sentencing an offender for more than one offence, or where the offender is already serving a sentence, consider whether the total sentence is just and proportionate to the overall offending behaviour in accordance with the Totality guideline.

STEP SIX

Compensation and ancillary orders

In all cases, the court should consider whether to make compensation and/or other ancillary orders. Where the offence has resulted in personal injury, loss or damage the court must give reasons if it decides not to order compensation (Sentencing Code, s.55).

STEP SEVEN

Reasons

Section 52 of the Sentencing Code imposes a duty to give reasons for, and explain the effect of, the sentence.

STEP EIGHT

Consideration for time spent on bail
